² The 1955 Chinese veto of Mongolia's application for UN membership occurred during the time when the Republic of China represented China at the UN. The subsequent vetoes cast by China have occurred since the People's Republic has represented China.

³ Of this total, 114 vetoes were cast under the name of the Soviet Union.
