<sup>1</sup> The official name is 'Group of Asia and the Pacific Small Island Developing States'. It is considered to have 55 members when the total includes Palestine, which has been a member of this group since 1986. However, because Palestine has not been admitted as a UN Member State, for electoral purposes the group is considered to have 54 members.

<sup>2</sup> 'WEOG' has 28 full members. The United States, an observer, is considered a member of the group for electoral purposes.
